SPONSORSHIPS

► About Us

The Tennessee Coalition to End Domestic & Sexual Violence is a leading force in combating domestic and sexual violence in Tennessee. For over 41 years, we have been dedicated to providing essential services, advocating for policy change, and raising awareness to create a safer future for all Tennesseans.

► Our Mission

To change societal attitudes and institutions that promote and condone violence, through public policy advocacy, education and activities that increase the capacity of programs and communities to address such violence.

► Our Impact

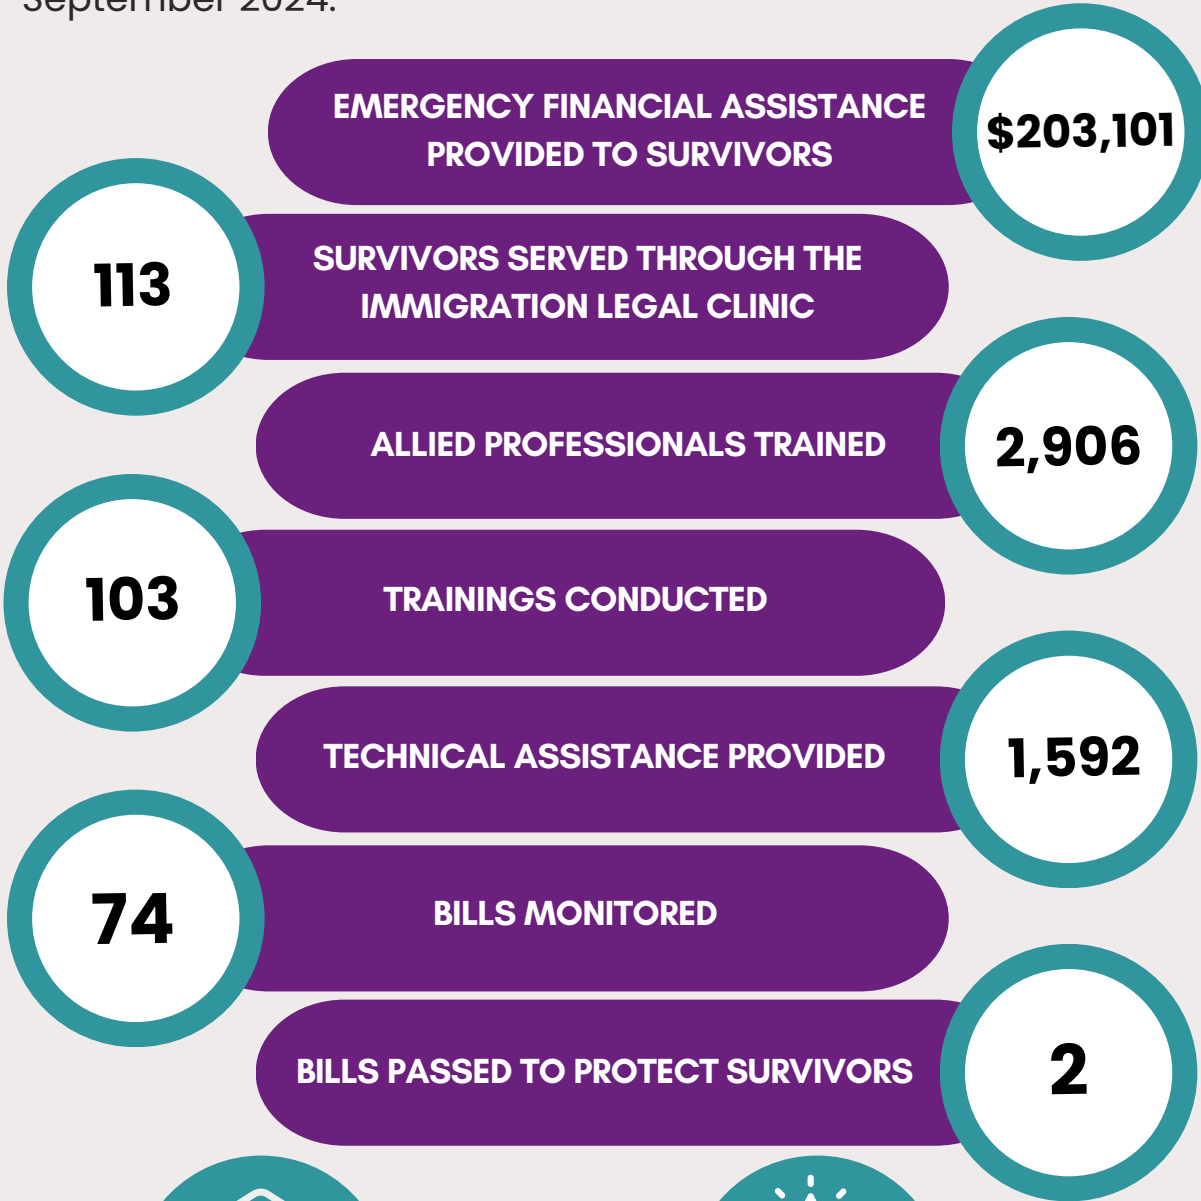

Your partnership with The Coalition will directly contribute to:

- Empowering Survivors: Providing critical services to build capacity across the state, such as emergency financial assistance, legal advocacy, and clinical counseling.
- Preventing Violence: Implementing innovative prevention programs that educate youth and promote healthy relationships.
- Advocating for Change: Lobbying for strong laws and policies that protect survivors and hold abusers accountable.
- Building Strong Communities: Collaborating with law enforcement, healthcare providers, and other organizations to create a coordinated response to domestic and sexual violence.

► Our Impact

As a statewide membership organization, we achieve our mission through activism, training, prevention, technical assistance, legislative advocacy, and leadership development. Check out our impact from October 2023 to September 2024.

Coalition Events

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Tennessee Coalition's Annual Conference is a premier two-day event dedicated to ending domestic and sexual violence through education, prevention, policy development, and victim services. Designed for advocates, allied professionals, and activists, the conference brings together a diverse audience including victim service providers, law enforcement, court personnel, social workers, healthcare providers, and educators. This conference is a transformative space for learning, networking, and advancing the mission to create safe, thriving communities across Tennessee.

DAY ON THE HILL

This impactful day of advocacy at the Tennessee State Capitol unites individuals and organizations committed to ending domestic and sexual violence in Tennessee. Participants receive hands-on training to confidently engage with lawmakers and advocate for survivor-centered policies. The day includes team meetings with state legislators, providing a vital opportunity to share stories, drive meaningful change, and make a lasting impact in the fight for safer communities.

PREVENTION SYMPOSIUM

The Prevention Symposium brings together professionals from across the state to learn, collaborate, and innovate on key topics essential to ending violence. This annual event features guest speakers, training on best practices and policies, networking opportunities, and a review of our State Action Plan and the latest data resources. It's a day of growth, inspiration, and collective problem-solving, all focused on building safe, thriving communities through shared efforts.

BATTERER'S INTERVENTION SUMMIT

This two-day conference is dedicated to enhancing the effectiveness of Batterer Intervention Programs across Tennessee. Focusing on victim safety, offender accountability, and program integrity, the event provides training aligned with the standards of the Domestic Violence State Coordinating Council. Attendees, including BIP facilitators and program directors, will benefit from expert-led workshops, networking opportunities, and professional development. Certificates and training hours are awarded to participants, ensuring programs are revitalized and meet the highest standards in the nation.
